

Hearts of Horse Haven

To advocate for, educate and give hope to equine across the Volunteer State

So Much in Such a Short Time! Can you believe it has only been nine months since we hit the ground running! We have been very busy ensuring ALL important aspects of equine rescue are being addressed across the state. Officials from across the state have been encouraged to know we are here to assist not only the equine in need but also for equine owners. We have been working hard on building a network of foster caregivers for animals needing a place to go when in crisis. If you would like to join our team of fosters, trainers or adopters please let us know by sending an email to; heartsofhorsehaven@gmail.com

Program Success!

Sometimes the best way to keep a horse from becoming a statistic is by helping the humans who care for them. We accomplish this two ways with the first being our very active Saving Grace Program. Whether it is a helping hand to provide feed and hay to horses owners who have fallen on hard times or helping an owner find solutions to dealing with their equines poor health or death. We accomplish this through our Saving Grace program named after an older mare whose owner did not realize they had an option until after the horse was given to a known slaughter buyer. Your support allows us to offer options which in turn offers hope.

Along with us helping owners directly, we are thrilled with the completion of our Equine Care Handbook. Because of a generous grant, we are distributing 1,000 copies across the volunteer state to county officials who handle the initial calls dealing with equine complaints. This educational tool will help open communication between law enforcement and owners. Our goal is to encourage change instead of confiscation through education. This should lessen the burden on all entities across the state.

First Arrivals!

When Holly first arrived in rescue she could barely keep herself going much less nurse her baby Clara. Months later, they are now ready to find their forever homes. From the information we received her previous owner had beaten Holly within an inch of her life. Holly still has a few trust issues but has come a long way. She will require a quiet place to roam with a gentle, patient handler. Clara like any other youngster is curious and sweet. Loves attention and because she is a clean slate she will make someone a great horse with the proper training. If you would like to learn more about our foster /adoption program or animals looking for a new home, please check out our website at www.heartsofhorsehaven.org.

The Need for Your Support - Caring for a horse is expensive. Your generous donations help us to pay for farrier and veterinarian care, medicines, feed, hay and more for the animals we are responsible for. As our intake numbers increase, your continued support is needed now, more than ever.

Our plea to you this Holiday Season is to join Hearts of Horse Haven and the Barbara J. Mapp Foundation in making a difference in the lives of horses and horse owners across our state. Knowing the importance of our mission the Barbara J. Mapp Foundation has graciously offered to match the first $5,000 in gifts we receive from now until the end of the year. Your gift will now be twice as important and will help us by providing much-needed food, shelter, and love for these magnificent animals or an owner in crisis.

Winter months are the most difficult for horses. Cases of neglect increase and by sending your tax-deductible donation today it enables us to be prepared for when horses are in need.

Sincerely,

Nina L. Margetson
